9:40 a.m.
Gary Lammers met with Commissioners Love, Jerwers and Schroeder and Jack Betscher to discuss regarding the opinion received from Tammy Hannon on County Boards and policies. The BOE has given bereavement leave and they do not have the authority to adopt a bereavement policy. The sick leave could be altered to included bereavement days. The County’s policy states that sick leave can be used for bereavement. BOE must redo their policy to use sick time. The Board do not have the abilities to do their own policies, but Commissioners would need to approve, if half of funds or more are received from Commissioners. It is recommended to keep it uniform so all are treated the same. The Board of Election’s policy references the County policy but has conflicting information. The BOE’s policy was not approved by the Commissioners so was not valid. The Health Board reviews the mileage rates at every meeting. It was suggested to adopt the Federal rate so as not to have to review. Vince saw the BOE weather emergency policy that the director has the authority to close the office, they do not have that authority. The BOE policy was adopted in June 2012 and revised in 2014, with personnel policy adopted in 2008. BOE should disregard their policy and use the County policy. The Board of Elections need to have the Commissioners approval based on getting at least half of their funding from County General /Commissioners. Gary explained new policies he put in place in his office that do not apply to other areas. There are some happenings that do not apply to all offices. The reimbursement for meals may need to be addressed if it is no longer reasonable. The office of Public Safety has a policy that the Commissioners have approved. It was questioned if the BOE’s policy was ever presented to the Commissioners for review. A Board’s policy may broaden on the county’s policy make it fit specific department but it may not go against the County’s policy. Jack said there is a double standard with elected officials and a departmental board. It was suggested to ask Tammy Hannon about the authority of Elected Officials versus Boards as far as authorities for giving time off, outside funds etc. Since the outside funds are not policed by the Auditor there is greater chance for misspending. The credit card opinion as reviewed and Gary agreed that there should not be multiple credit cards floating around the County, because of the difficulty to keep track of the expenses. Jack asked about the probationary employment period and having a medical condition that hinders the performance of the job. If the employee cannot perform the job he was hired for he can be let go. The probationary period for employment with the County is one year.

The Commissioners Jerwers, Love and Schroeder called Fred Lord, Clemans-Nelson since he did not come to office. Fred informed the Commissioners that he just received the factfinders report today and did not get to review it yet. Since the report did not get reviewed yet a meeting for next week was set up. The Commissioners thought the Communications department were ready to sign off. Fred will check on that.
